

Baltic or Russian style gilded and cut glass eight candle branch Chandelier: the gilded frame with highly decorative frieze of floral motifs and basket-of-flowers surmounts; with eight scrolling candle branches issuing from flower and anthemion mounts; suspended from upper corona on four pierced chains set with cut glass cabochons; dressed with graduated chains of facet-cut glass oval prisms, alternating with 'icicle' pendants to centre 'pinecone' finial. Circa 1830, marked 'P Cronin A Grenoble', and restored.

1377

Height: 36" - 91.5cm

Width: 34" - 86cm

Baltic or Russian style gilded and cut glass eight candle branch Chandelier

1377b

Baltic or Russian style gilded and cut glass eight candle branch Chandelier

1377c

Baltic or Russian style gilded and cut glass eight candle branch Chandelier

1377d

Baltic or Russian style gilded and cut glass eight candle branch Chandelier

1377e

Baltic or Russian style gilded and cut glass eight candle branch Chandelier

1377f

Baltic or Russian style gilded and cut glass eight candle branch Chandelier

1377g

Baltic or Russian style gilded and cut glass eight candle branch Chandelier

1377h

Baltic or Russian style gilded and cut glass eight candle branch Chandelier

1377a

Baltic or Russian style gilded and cut glass eight candle branch Chandelier

1377e