

Pair of ormolu and cut glass twin-branch Candelabra with eagles:
the umbrella fronds dressed with cut-glass 'double-stars' and 'icicle' pendants; the centre stem with three black-bronze eagle heads and surmounted by diamond-cut glass acorn.
Formerly the property of Maureen, Marchioness of Dufferin and Ava. Circa 1820 and restored.

1760

Height: 22" - 56cm
Width: 13½" - 34cm

Pair of ormolu and cut glass twin-branch Candelabra with eagles

1760b

Pair of ormolu and cut glass twin-branch Candelabra with eagles

1760c

Pair of ormolu and cut glass twin-branch Candelabra with eagles

1760d

Pair of ormolu and cut glass twin-branch Candelabra with eagles

1760e