

Near pair of gilt-lattice mounted and Chinese Porcelain Dish Lights:
the Chinese lids from early 18th-century Chinese ginger jars; suspended by three chains to top leafy boss.

5764

Circa 1920 and restored. One repaired.

Provenance: London home of Lady Baillie of Leeds Castle decorated by Armand
Albert Rateau and later by Stéphane Boudin, head of Maison Jansen.

Height: 15" - 34.0cm

Width: 22" - 56.0cm

Near pair of gilt-lattice mounted and Chinese Porcelain Dish Lights

5764d

Near pair of gilt-lattice mounted and Chinese Porcelain Dish Lights

5764e

Near pair of gilt-lattice mounted and Chinese Porcelain Dish Lights

5764f

Near pair of gilt-lattice mounted and Chinese Porcelain Dish Lights

5764g

Near pair of gilt-lattice mounted and Chinese Porcelain Dish Lights

5764h

Near pair of gilt-lattice mounted and Chinese Porcelain Dish Lights

5764

Near pair of gilt-lattice mounted and Chinese Porcelain Dish Lights

5764b