

Denton Antiques: Cookie Policy

Introduction

Cookies are small text files containing a string of characters that can be placed on your computer or mobile device that uniquely identifies your browser or device. We use cookie technology, pixels and local storage to deliver, secure, and understand website and services. If you choose not to accept cookies you may not be able to access certain parts of our website and other parts of our website may not work properly.

What are cookies used for?

Cookies allow our site to know if your computer or device has visited it before. These technologies can then be used to improve the Website service, help us understand how the site or service is being used, help you navigate between pages efficiently, help remember your preferences, and generally improve your experience in using our Website.

Why do we use cookies and similar technologies?

We use cookies, pixels, local storage, and similar technologies to show you relevant content, for example, related items, improve your experience, and help protect Denton Antiques website and our users. We use these technologies to deliver the website, provide you with a service that is easy to use, enable you to move around the site and use its features, such as accessing secure areas, and store information so that the website responds faster. We may use these technologies to collect information about how you use our site, for example which pages you go to most often and if you get error messages from certain pages. We may use these technologies to allow us to remember choices you make (such as your user name, or the region you're in) and tailor the site to provide enhanced features and content for you. These technologies can remember that your device has visited a site or service, and may also be able to track your device's browsing activity on other sites or services. This information may be shared with organizations outside our website, to help measure the effectiveness of our website. We may use these technologies to understand, improve, and research products and services.

How long will cookies stay on my device?

The length of time a cookie will stay on your computer or mobile device depends on whether it is a "persistent" or "session" cookie. Session cookies will only stay on your device until you stop browsing. Persistent cookies stay on your computer or mobile device until they expire or are deleted.

First and third party cookies

First-party cookies are cookies that belong to Denton Antiques, third-party cookies are cookies that another party places on your device through our services.e.g. Google maps. Third-party cookies may be placed on your device by someone providing a service for us, for example to help us understand how our service is being used.

How to control cookies or other collection mechanisms:

Follow the instructions provided by your website or mobile browser (usually located within the "Help", "Tools" or "Edit" facility) to modify your cookie settings. Please note that if you set your browser to disable cookies or other technologies, you may not be able to access certain parts of our website and other parts of our website may not work properly.
